

WAPA Endowment Scholarship

Each year, the Wisconsin chapter of the American Planning Association sponsors two full-tuition scholarships for students entering the planning profession. These students, one at each of the state's accredited graduate programs, the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, are selected based on merit, planning experience and financial need. The APA - WI is proud to have this opportunity to sponsor the next generation of planning professionals.

Eligibility

Eligible students must be entering one of the state's accredited master's of urban planning programs, must be Wisconsin residents, and must have graduated from a Wisconsin public high school. All scholarships will be awarded for four semesters beginning in the fall semester.

Selection

An awards committee at each school will select the recipient based upon:

- Financial Need
- Academic merit
- Leadership skills
- Community service
- Planning work experience
- Interest in planning for sustainable and socially just cities and regions
