NE MI Government & Public Policy EducatorPosition Overview

MSU Extension's government, leadership, and community engagement programs, located within MSUE's Greening Michigan Institute, engage participants in learning skills of good governance, how to communicate with purpose, and how to collaborate on solving complex issues in order to improve their communities. Participants leave MSU Extension educational programs with a deeper understanding of their civic responsibilities and roles within their own communities, increased confidence to make decisions, additional skills and information to better manage community resources, knowledge of how to implement best practices, and an understanding of the importance of building quality places in Michigan. The application of knowledge and skills gained from good governance programs builds stronger civic infrastructure.

This Extension Educator position will focus on three key elements: engaging with local governments to address critical issues related to budgeting and finance, land use planning, natural resources and environmental protection and governance; design, implement, coordinate, support, teach and evaluate programs as an active participant in the Government and Public Policy and Natural Resources work teams; and, partner with local and regional organizations, such as regional planning agencies, county governments and others to determine needs and conduct effective cooperative educational efforts. The individual will also work closely with District Coordinators in identifying local programming needs.

QualificationsMinimum Qualifications (see full description for complete list of requirements)

- Master's degree from an accredited institution in a field of study related to planning, public administration, public policy, economics, business administration, natural resources or related field, by date of hire.

Desired Qualifications

- American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) credential preferred.
