

Director of Planning and Development: The City of Port Washington is seeking applicants for the position of Director of Planning and Development. Under the general direction of the City Administrator, the person filling the position performs professional and administrative duties related to managing the Department of Planning and Development including planning, zoning, economic development and redevelopment activity. Principal duties would include monitoring and implementing the City's Comprehensive Plan through review of rezonings, conditional uses grants, changes to the official City Map and new subdivisions/certified survey maps. Coordination of economic development activities with the various City committees and community organizations such as the , CDA, Economic Development Committee, Business Improvement District, Main Street and the County Economic Development Committee is a primary responsibility.\

Minimum education and experience for the position is a Bachelor's Degree in planning or economic development and four years experience in a related field. Certification as American Institute of Certified Planners and Economic Development Finance Professional highly desired. Starting salary range: $74,861 - $84,792.

Deadline date for applications is April 6, 2018. Applications should be mailed to: Mark Grams, City Administrator, 100 W. Grand Avenue, P.O. Box 307, Port Washington, Wisconsin 53074.