The City of West Allis is an innovative, progressive and continuously improving local government seeking a Planner who implements general urban planning projects including neighborhood redevelopment, comprehensive planning and zoning, and historic preservation. The work primarily involves the collection and analysis of a wide range of community and urban planning information including site, landscaping, and architectural design; preparation of planning documents, analytic reports, and graphic materials; provides related information, interpretations, evaluations, and recommendations regarding planning strategies, processes, policies, and ordinances; and operates GIS systems. This is a highly professional office environment, but also is involved in field work associated with urban planning, land use planning, and neighborhood planning activities. This position is highly independent and collaborates, responds to/serves many people, including citizens, Managers, Department Heads, appointed officials, and elected representatives, with little daily supervision.

EEO Employer

The City of West Allis is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, color, religion, age, marital or veterans' status, sex, national origin, disability, or any other legally protected status in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its services, programs or activities.

Upon reasonable notice the City will furnish appropriate auxiliary aids and services when necessary to afford individuals with disabilities an equal opportunity to participate in and to enjoy the benefits of a service, program or activity provided by the City.
